1984 Reflections Staff

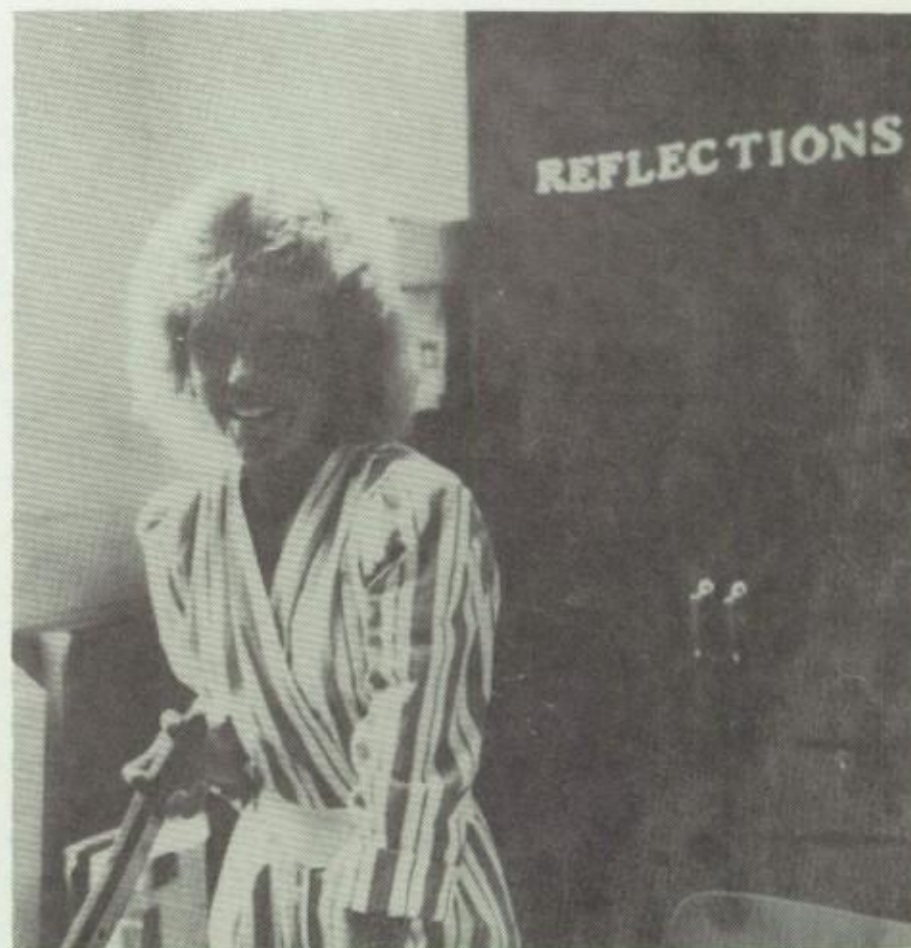

Displaying their journalistic ability are: Joann Jackson, Angie Weber, Christy Wedding, Lisa Wilmes, Jill Jourdan, Kelli Richardt, Margot Denman, Nicole Snurpus, Kelly Wulff, Joann Ritter. Row two. Mark Johns, Steve Scheller, Laura Backes, Julie Roehr, John Mulherin, Stan Wilhite, and Mrs. Staff, Lying down on the job. Janet Johann not pictured.

Under the diligent leadership of Lisa Wilmes, editor, the REFLECTIONS staff began first semester (while they were still producing the first several issues of the Mirror) to organize. Stan Wilhite and John Mulherin spent the entire semester in the darkroom; Mark Johns, as art and photography director, scheduled pictures and scheduled pictures and scheduled pictures.

Advertising managers Kelli Richardt and Joann Ritter worked selling and pasting-up ads. Michelle Goebel and Kelly Wulff served as general organizers and motivators.

REFLECTIONS could not have been produced without the dedication of Janet Johann who set all the type and served, as well, as business manager. Steve Scheller and Julie Roehr, experienced from Mirror production, spent after-school hours pasting-up. Joann Jackson, circulation manager, worked on sales and distribution of the yearbook.

Laura Backes, Margot Denman, Angie Weber, Christy Wedding, Jill Jourdan, Nicole Snurpus, and Kristi Wessel filled many gaps—pasting-up, taking pictures, writing headlines and copy, and cheering! All of these dedicated people were 'advised' by Betty Staff.

Editor Lisa Wilmes found much enjoyment in organizing the 1984 Yearbook.

It's time for us to go,
head on our separate ways,
Remembering all the fun we had,
during our high school days.
Old friends, new friends we'll always keep in mind,
Never leaving memories very far behind.
You lent us an ear and helped us get through,
The moments of sorrow and happiness too.
New mountains to climb and goals to be set,
Our days here at Reitz we'll never forget
The wins and the losses we cherish so dear,
Will long be remembered year after year.
The ups and the downs that made us so strong,
You stood right beside us and helped us along.
A lump in our throats and a tear in our eyes,
We're finding it hard to say good-bye.
Farewell to you, Big Blue and Gray,
The time has come... Graduation day.

by Lisa Wilmes

Reflections Editor

Dear Tammy,

As time has gone by, we will always remember that you were a part of the Class of 1984. It seems like yesterday we were smiling and laughing together. Nothing in this crazy world could ever take away the precious memories we have of you, and even though God has only given us memories, we have made the best of them. The senior class has been through some difficult situations and times in each one's life when he thought the world was coming to an end. But we have all learned to have the strength and courage to go on. We all have realized that life is the most precious gift of all and to make the best of that gift.

Tammy, we all miss you and we will always remember those special moments. Our thoughts and hearts are with you on graduation and always. Thank you for the beautiful memories! We will cherish them forever.

Class of 1984

Tammy Huff, Class of 1984 died on November 12, 1982 as a result of an automobile accident. She is remembered at this special time by her classmates and friends.

Club raises pep

Pep Club, under the leadership of President Kathy Hicks, is a group of students from freshmen through seniors, who are interested in encouraging school spirit throughout the year. This club tries to create enthusiasm by making banners, selling buttons, and organizing pep assemblies. Most Pep Club members are dedicated fans and support all sports and extracurricular activities. We take pride, along with the student body, in how much each sport and club has accomplished.

Joe Layne displays his Panther Pride.

Pointing out that Reitz is number one, stands Keith Johnson high on his toes.

Hand on hip, Jeff Craft fills in for one of the absent cheerleaders.

Jazzing up the football and basketball activities are the Hilltoppers. The Hilltoppers is a dance and pom-pom group that is extremely active throughout the school year. During football season, they dance for the pre-game show, and half-time during basketball season. Occasionally, they perform during school assemblies and even away from school for special group meetings.

Co-captains for the Hilltoppers are Kerri Greenwood and Lisa Miller. Making up the dances is choreographer Kristi Damm. The Hilltoppers have even competed in competition. Each summer the group attends a one-week workshop camp to learn new techniques and dance routines. Mrs Nancy Qualls sponsors the Hilltoppers.

Gridders battle tough season

Assistant Coach Don Henry

The football season brought with it many changes—a new coach, the single-wing offense, and the 3-4 defense. Considering all the changes that occurred and the limited amount of time to prepare, the varsity football team had an excellent season that ended with 5 wins and 5 losses.

With many experienced players returning, including the reserve team that won the city championship, Reitz is on its way to becoming the power it once was.
